

---

GOAL: To create a logo that's representative of Shiva's personal style and intuitive skills and talents.

This logo is based on the ancient meaning of a line, the number 2. At the outside of this logo, you have two poles, which represents tension between two conflicting energies, or the separation of energy in want of finding wholeness.

